

L.A. LIVING

The Home of Mike and Brooke Mahan

Designer Jake Arnold's "warm and livable" redo of a spec house owned by a live events exec and his wife

Living Room

"We knew he would create something cool and unique but also warm and livable," says client Mike Mahan of Arnold's style. Details include floor lamps from Orange Furniture; Michael Anastassiades' Mobile Chandelier 1 ($20,075, thefutureperfect.com); Allied Maker's Molten sconces; Orange Furniture's Cubist coffee table ($5,500) and chairs by Gerrit Rietveld. Artworks by Jason Trotter and Jennifer Boysen.

Office

Farrow & Ball's Down Pipe paint gives Mike Mahan's home office a "serious and moody" feel, says his wife, Brooke. Danielle Siggerud's Mattina table, used as a desk, sits on a rug from Lawrence of La Brea. The two upholstered mohair chairs are vintage Milo Baughman. The artwork is by Ammon Rost. Says Mike, "We were introduced to Jake through a friend and were immediately drawn to his style."

Dining Room

Bedroom

"They really wanted it to be comfortable and cozy, but at the same time they wanted to be able to use the spaces and really keep it feeling a little more modern and pared back," says Arnold of the overall aesthetic. Bedroom details include Farrow & Ball's Down Pipe paint, custom bed and nightstands, rug from Woven, vintage chairs from Orange and vintage ceiling fixture from 1st Dibs.
